Good afternoon,

Please see refined request submitted by the applicant today:

*Dear North Yorkshire Police and Crime Commissioner,
I write further to your acknowledgement of my request.*

It may assist the Civil Disclosure Unit if I refine/reduce my request in the first instance to only providing a schedule of the materials for each part of the request (1. Ex-CC Jones 2. CC Winward) that exist. In so doing, identifying the number and type of documents (email, letter, form, notice etc) that may fall for disclosure (subject to exemptions being applied).

A more detailed request can then follow, which can then, hopefully, be framed so as to avoid the more obvious exemptions.

Please note that if we do not hold such a schedule at this current time, we may respond with 'no information held'.

Subject: Internal review of Freedom of Information request - Change of chief constable, 2018

Dear North Yorkshire Police and Crime Commissioner (NYPCC),

Please pass this on to the person who conducts Freedom of Information reviews.

I am writing to request an internal review of North Yorkshire Police and Crime Commissioner's handling of my FOI request 'Change of chief constable, 2018'.

The grounds for complaint are:

1. Section 10 of the Act requires a response to an information request PROMPTLY and, in any event within 20 working days.
2. Section 17 of the Act requires a refusal notice to be served within 20 working days, if a public authority seeks to rely on any exemption in order not to disclose the requested information.
3. NYPCC is plainly in breach of both s10 and s17 and is invited to remedy the matters, as a matter of urgency.
4. It is noted that other information requests to NYPCC that were made on the same day as the instant request, or later, have been finalised. A reasonable inference being that this requester - well known to the senior management team within NYPCC - is being discriminated against.
5. The instant request is tightly drawn and would require comparatively little effort to facilitate disclosure. I have also, since, refined the request to ease the burden further.
6. As part of the internal review it is requested that NYPCC disclose to the wider world all internal and external email and/or letter correspondence relating to the fulfilment of this request. Up to, and including, the date of the disposal of the internal review. It is most respectfully requested that this is NOT be viewed as an opportunity to delay the disclosure requested initially.
7. As a journalist, I am more acutely aware than most of the pressure on the Civil Disclosure Unit. I am not unsympathetic, and try to assist, wherever I can, in reducing burden and conducting correspondence between us professionally, and cordially, as far as possible.
8. But it must be recognised, by NYPCC, that there is also a considerable burden being placed on me, by way of every information request requiring the drafting of an internal review request. All I ask is that I am treated fairly and my requests, which, invariably, and as you very probably know, have a serious and wider purpose, be taken at their face.
9. Nevertheless, I remain grateful for the disclosures that are made to me, following information requests to NYPCC, one of my four local policing bodies, and, also, for the courteous manner in which the requests are always dealt with.

A full history of my FOI request and all correspondence is available on the Internet at this address:
